Carrollton:
FRIDAY, JULY 8, 1836.
Fourth of July.
The Anniversary of our national Independence was observed in this place, on Monday last, with extraordinary spirit.
It is supposed by some, that there were a thousand citizens of the county in attendance. The festive preparations of the day, were a public Dinner, of which about 180 persons partook, and a Barbecue in which some 3 or 400 participated.
The whole went off well, (We publish in this paper, to the exclusion of much other matter, an "Exhibit of the Receipts and Expenditures, of Carroll county." Our readers we hope will bear with it, as we shall not permit it to encumber our columns more than two weeks, if so long.
New Post Routes. Through the politeness of Gen. Thompson, our Representative in Congress, we have received a copy of the Bill, establishing new post routes, as the same recently passed both Houses of Congress. We give the following as a list of those in which our Carroll county readers may feel immediately interested.
From New Hagerstown, by Kilgore and Shober's mills, in Carroll county, to McCullough's, in Jefferson county, From Paris, in Stark county, by Brown's post office, and New Harrisburg to Leesville, in Carroll county, From Carrollton, in Carroll county, by Leavitt and New Cumberland, to New Philadelphia, in Tuscarawas county,
From Carrollton, in Carroll county, by Pekin in Carroll county, and Paris, in Stark county, to Randolph, in Portage co., From New Hagerstown and West Chester, in Carroll county, to Cambridge in Guernsey county, The press of matter for the present week, both in the original and advertising line, is so great that we are obliged to exclude for the present, several articles prepared for insertion in our columns—a mong which is a communication from Samuel Greenwell, Esq. So soon as our columns are at liberty, we will give due attention to all deferred articles.
THE CELEBRATION OF THE FOURTH OF JULY.
A great concourse of citizens assembled at the Court House, at 1 o'clock P. M. on the 4th to hear the reading of the Declaration of Independence, and the delivery of an Oration prepared for the occasion.
The reader of the day, (John McCormick Esq.) after some preliminary remarks, proceeded to read the Declaration of Independence, after which the Orator in a chaste, and eloquent manner, addressed the assemblage.
When, according to previous arrangement, the citizens in attendance formed in front of the Court House, and marched in regular order, escorted by Capt. Wm.
Hodge's Artillery company, to the hill at the west end of Town, where a dinner was served up by Col. James Thompson.
The ceremonies of the day were conducted with the utmost good order, and cheerfulness. Below we give the toasts drank at the table, a copy of the oration has been received by the committee for publication, and will be published next week.

REGULAR TOASTS.
1 The day we celebrate. May posterity to the latest age commemorate it in union and harmony throughout our widely extended country.
2d. The Declaration of Independence.
Worthy the congress of '76: it breathes the spirit of Freemen and Patriots who who were not afraid to pledge their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honors in its defence and that of their country.
3d. The Heroes of the Revolution.— Freely they bled and freely they died, that their children might be freed from the shackles of British tyranny. We hesitate which most to admire, their daring bravery or thir disinterestedness.
4th. Washington & Lafayette, the friends of equal rights.—Succeeding generations will venerate their names.
5th. The Constitution of the U. States The Bond of Union, may it never be trampled upon with impunity.
6th. Jefferson Madison & Monroe.— Their memory will ever be cherished by the sons of a grateful Republic.
7th. America.—A great nation, with a Government free and independent, stands revealed to the astonished vision of a wandering world.
8th. The President of the U. States & Heads of Departments.
9th. The Army & Navy of the United States. Equally formidable and efficient, in adding to our National glory.
10th. The surviving officers and soldiers of the Revolution.—They deserve well of their country, may our National Gratitude protect them in their declining years.
11th. The Youth of the Republic.—The rising hope of the Nation, may our free institutions through them be perpetuated.
12th. The Press.—The organ of intelligence, the guardian of our liberties, when our country's good is its "mott o"
